New Salaried GPs joining the Practice

We are very pleased to advise patients that we have now appointed two new Salaried GPs to join our Clinical Team on a permanent basis.

We are delighted to firstly welcome Dr Caroline Saunders, who will be starting with us on Monday 20 November 2017. Dr Saunders will be working three days per week, on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. She will take over as the Named GP for those patients who were previously with Dr Maha and who have been listed with other doctors temporarily during the interim period. The changeover will be made on 20 November. Dr Saunders is an experienced GP who has previously worked in another area of Bristol.

In the New Year we will also welcome Dr Hilma Starostina, who will be joining us on 15 January 2018. Dr Starostina will also be working three days per week, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Some of our newer patients will be transferred to her list when she starts in January, but we will let you know nearer the time.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the locum GPs who have been working with us during the past year and helping to provide care for our patients during the transitional period. Some of them have been here quite regularly and we will miss seeing them around!

Thanks also to all of our patients who have been understanding and supportive over the past 12-18 months. It has been quite a challenge but we hope things will begin to settle down again over the next few months.

If you haven't had your flu jab yet, it's not too late!
